

Paying the price for anti-Hinduism

National Post

Published: Friday, January 25, 2008

Re: Ongoing series of excerpts from Alex von Tunzelmann's Indian Summer.

Kudos to the Post for publishing excerpts from Indian Summer. It is highly relevant that as an opposition MP, Winston Churchill said: "I hate Indians. They are a beastly people with a beastly religion."

Since the majority religion of India is Hinduism, his statement shows the British establishment's anti-Hindu hatred. Churchill's anti-Hindu bias was revealed in his collusion with Muhammad Ali Jinnah to form Islamic Pakistan. It is delicious irony that fanatic members of this very same Pakistani community are now threatening the United Kingdom and Western civilization itself.

British pro-Muslim bias has created a Frankenstein that is now out of control.

Ron Banerjee, director, Hindu Conference of Canada, Toronto.